Fundamental to the mediation process described herein are principles of safety, self-determination, procedural informality, privacy, confidentiality, and full disclosure of relevant information between the parties. Mediation is based on a full disclosure of all facts related to the disputes so that a fair and equitable agreement can be achieved by the parties.

(b) Impediment. When the word "impediment" is used herein, it means any condition, including but not limited to domestic violence or intimidation, substance abuse, or mental illness, the existence of which, in an individual or in a relationship, hinders the ability of any party to negotiate safely, competently, and in good faith. The identification of forms of impediment is designed not to require treatment, but to insure that only parties having a present, undiminished ability to negotiate are directed by court order to mediate.

(2) Mediation Mandatory in Certain Cases.

(a) Matters Subject to Mediation. The designated judge shall order mediation of contested child custody and visitation issues arising in any case not otherwise determined to be ineligible pursuant to this program. 2. Circumstances which would make the case ineligible for mediation.

(d) Discovery. Discovery may continue throughout the mediation.

(3) Cases Ineligible for Mediation.

The court may on motion or its own initiative find that a case is ineligible for mediation. Such motions shall be supported by affidavit. A finding of ineligibility shall be based on any of the following factors:

- (a) Inadequate financial resources of the parties,
- (b) An impediment,
- (c) The existence of circumstances which would likely cause undue hardship to a party or child if mediation is ordered.

(4) Referral Assignment Procedure.

(a) Upon the court's order for the parties to participate in mediation, a mediator may be selected by agreement of the parties from the list of qualified mediators maintained by the Chief Judge or his/her designee. Absent an agreement, the trial judge shall select the mediator and assign the mediator a 45-day status date on the issue of progress of the mediation. The mediator shall be compensated by the parties at the rate agreed to by the parties and the mediator.

3. On or before the status date, for parties who are participating in mediation, the mediator shall submit a report to the court and the parties' legal counsel, which shall include the information required by Rule (9).

4. The parties shall contact the mediator within two days after the referral order is entered for the purpose of setting an appointment.

If the mediator appointed has or had any possible conflict of interest, including but not limited to a current or previous therapeutic, personal or economic relationship with mother, father, child, sibling, step-parent, grandparent, household member, counsel or anyone else directly involved in the case, he or she shall decline the appointment or disclose that relationship to the attorneys and may be removed for that reason. If there is a conflict, the parties may select or the court shall appoint another mediator.

2. A mediator who is a mental health professional shall not provide counseling or therapy to the parties or their children during or after the mediation. An attorney-mediator may not represent either party in any matter during the mediation process or in a dispute between the parties after the mediation process.

(c) Ethical Conduct. Inclusion of a mediator in the approved mediators list indicates explicit agreement by that mediator to maintain high standards of ethical practice. Failure to comply may result in removal of the mediator's name from the approved list.

(5) Qualifications of Mediators.

(a) Requirements. Mediators must meet all of the following requirements:

1. Formal Education. Possess a degree in law or master's or other advanced degree in a field that includes the study of psychiatry, psychology, social work, human development, family counseling or other behavioral science substantially related to marriage and family interpersonal relationships or a related field or other degree program approved by the Chief Judge or his/her designee. All applicants for inclusion on the list shall possess the minimum qualifications set out in this Rule. For good cause shown, the Chief Judge or his/her designee reserves the right to reject the application of any person who applies and to remove any mediator from the list. Inclusion on the list by the court shall not be considered a warranty that such mediator can successfully mediate any specific dispute.

(d) Denial/Removal from List. An applicant denied inclusion on or removed from the court-approved list may appeal the decision in writing within ten days to the Chief Judge or his/her designee. The Chief Judge or his/her designee shall decide the appeal after an opportunity for the applicant or mediator to be heard.

(d) Effect of Termination. No mediation terminated shall proceed further unless ordered by the court upon motion of a party. In the absence of such an order, the case shall be returned to the docket for adjudication in the manner prescribed by law.

(8) Confidentiality.

Subject to the provisions of the Uniform Mediation Act (710 ILCS 35/1 et seq.), the following provisions govern mediation proceedings:

(a) Privacy of Sessions. Mediation sessions shall be private. Except as otherwise provided in Rule (6)(a)(9), the mediator shall have authority to exclude all persons other than the parties from sessions at which negotiations are to occur.

(b) Confidentiality. Except as otherwise provided by law, all written and verbal communications made in a mediation session conducted pursuant to these rules are confidential and may not be disclosed by the mediator or any other participant or observer of the mediation, except that the parties may report these communications to their attorneys or counselors. Prior to the commencement of mediation, all participants in the mediation shall sign the confidentiality agreement prescribed by these rules. (Suggested form, Appendix F).

1. Limitation of Disclosure. Admissions, representations, statements and other communications made or disclosed in confidence by any participant in the course of mediation session shall not be admissible as evidence in any court proceeding. Except when necessary under Rule (8)(c)(2), a mediator may not be called as a witness in any proceeding by any party or by the court to testify regarding matters disclosed in a mediation session, nor may a party be compelled to testify regarding matters disclosed during a mediation session as to privileged communications. These restrictions shall not prohibit any person from obtaining the same information independent of the mediation, or from discovery conducted pursuant to law or court rule.

2. Exceptions. Admissions, representations, statements and other communications are not confidential and may be admissible as evidence in court proceedings if:

- a. all parties consent in writing to the disclosure; or
- b. the communication reveals either an act of violence committed against another during mediation, or an intent to commit an act that may result in bodily harm to another; or
- c. the communication reveals evidence of abuse or neglect of a child; or
- d. non-identifying information is made available for research or evaluation purposes approved by the court; or
- e. the communication is probative evidence in a pending action alleging negligence or willful misconduct of the mediator.

(9) Attendance and Termination of Mediation.

(a) Attendance. The parties shall attend the mediation session(s) and shall attend a minimum of three hours of mediation. Further participation may be extended by order of court or agreement of the parties. Mediation may be terminated or suspended prior to completion of the three hours upon resolution of all mediated issues.

(b) Termination or Suspension. The mediation may be terminated or suspended at the option of the mediator or the court.

(c) Notice to Court. The mediator shall immediately advise the court in writing if he or she suspends or terminates mediation or in the event that either or both parties fail to comply with the terms of this Rule.

(d) Sanctions for Failure to Appear. If a party fails to appear without good cause at a previously agreed upon mediation conference or a mediation conference ordered by the court, the court upon motion may impose sanctions, including an award of mediator and attorney fees and other costs, against the party failing to appear.

(e) Termination with Agreement. When agreements or partial agreements are reached by the parties during mediation, the mediator shall provide a written account of the agreements to the parties and their attorneys (if any), but the mediator shall not provide this written account to the court. The mediator shall advise each party to obtain legal assistance in drafting or reviewing any final agreements. The mediator shall advise the parties that agreements reached during mediation will not be legally binding until they are reviewed by the court and signed by the judge.

(f) Termination Without an Agreement. Upon termination without agreement, the mediator shall file with the court a final Mediator's Report stating that the mediation has concluded without disclosing any reasons for the parties' failure to reach an agreement.

(g) Reporting Procedures.

1. Mediator's Report. The mediator shall prepare a Mediator's Report on the prescribed form within ten days of the termination of the last mediation session. These reports will be filed with the circuit clerk. (Suggested form, Appendix G).

2. Statistics. The mediator shall prepare a statistical report for each case on the prescribed form and file them at least quarterly with the Chief Judge. (Suggested form, Appendix H).

3. Reports to the Supreme Court. The Chief Judge or his/her designee shall provide for the maintenance of records of mediations conducted pursuant to these rules. The information shall include the number of mediations conducted, the number of mediations resulting in an agreement and those resulting in no agreement. Such information shall be furnished to the Supreme Court through its administrative office once a year or at such other interval as may be directed.

(h) Appointment of Child Representative/Guardian ad litem. If the mediator has concerns for the welfare or safety of the minor child(ren) or feels that it is in the best interests of the minor, the mediator shall recommend to the court in the Mediator's Report that a child representative or guardian ad litem be appointed for the minor(s).

(10) Entry of Judgment or Order.

(a) Presentation of Order. Each mediated agreement shall be presented by the parties or their attorneys (if any) to the court within 45 days following the filing of the final Mediator's Report.

(b) Approval by Court. The court shall examine the parties as to the content and intent of the agreement and shall reject the agreement if any of its provisions are found by the court to be unconscionable or contrary to the best interests of a minor child. Unless the agreement is rejected, the court shall enter an appropriate judgment or order stating its findings and shall incorporate, either explicitly or by reference, the agreement so the terms of such agreement are also the terms of the judgment or order.

RULE IX. SPECIAL RULES PERTAINING TO SMALL CLAIMS ACTIONS

(A) Issuance of Summons. The issuance of summons in small claims cases shall be in accordance with Supreme Court Rules. If it appears on the return date of a summons that the defendant has not been served with process, the plaintiff may request the issuance of an alias summons which shall be returnable at a date and hour certain to be set by the court. If, at the end of six months following the filing of the complaint, it appears that the defendant has not been served, the case may be dismissed without prejudice.

(B) Corporations. Corporations shall appear in small claims court according to Supreme Court Rule 282(b).

(C) Initial Appearance by the Parties. The plaintiff and the defendant must appear in Court on the return date set in the summons. If the defendant does not appear on the return date, default may be entered against the defendant for an amount not to exceed the amount stated in the complaint plus court costs. If default judgment is entered, the clerk of the court or such other party as directed by the court shall give notice of said default judgment. (Suggested Form, Appendix E).

(D) Denial of Claim. If the defendant denies the claim, the cause shall be set for trial at a date and time certain. The defendant may be ordered to pay the appropriate appearance fee by a date certain. If the appearance fee is not paid, the trial date will be vacated, default judgment will be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant for the amount not exceeding the amount stated in the complaint plus court costs, and the defendant and the plaintiff shall be notified of that action. Appearance fees may be waived or postponed upon a showing of good cause.

(E) Vacating Default Judgment. Petitions to vacate default judgment shall be presented to the Judge entering the judgment.

(F) Dismissal for Lack of Activity. Docket calls will be set once a year, and those cases in which there has been no activity for 180 days shall be placed on a docket call, and may be dismissed without prejudice on that date unless good cause is shown.

(G) Matter Under Advisement. No case shall be kept under advisement longer than 30 days.

(H) Post Judgment Matters. If on the date set for the hearing on a citation to discover assets the defendant fails to appear and a proof of service is on file, a rule to show cause may issue and a hearing date set on the rule by the court. In its discretion, the court may issue a body attachment for failure to appear at a citation hearing, but bond thereon shall not exceed $300 cash upon the first failure to appear at a citation hearing. Proof of notice of the hearing on the rule to show cause may be made by certificate of mailing to defendant's last known address in those cases where a body attachment is not issued.

RULE X. SETTLEMENT OF MINOR'S OR WARD'S PERSONAL INJURY CLAIM, WRONGFUL DEATH CLAIM, OR CLAIM UNDER THE SURVIVAL STATUTE

(A) Contents of Petition. To settle a cause of action for personal injuries sustained by a minor, or ward, or any other action in which a minor or ward will receive any or all of the settlement proceeds, a verified petition shall be filed executed by the legal representative of the minor, ward, or the decedent's estate, and shall recite:

1. A description of the occurrence giving rise to the cause of action.
2. The name and address of the person or entity against whom the cause of action has accrued.
3. The name and address of the liability insurance carrier, if any, affording coverage to the person or entity against whom the cause of action has accrued, and the monetary limits of the liability insurance policy issued by said insurance carrier in effect at the time of the occurrence.
4. A brief description of the injuries sustained by the minor and a list of hospital and medical expenses incurred on behalf of said minor as a result of the occurrence, and a current medical report or letter executed by the attending physician stating the nature and extent of the injuries sustained and giving the prognosis.
5. The terms of any settlement offer and a statement by the attorney for the petitioner of his or her opinion as to the fairness of the proposed settlement and a recommendation as to whether the offer should be approved.

(B) Appointment of Guardian Ad Litem. In cases where no independent attorney has been employed by the legal representative of the minor or ward, the court may appoint an attorney as guardian ad litem to investigate the merits of the proposed settlement and to report his or her findings and recommendations before approval of the proposed settlement. In the event the appointed guardian ad litem does not recommend the approval of the proposed settlement, the appointed guardian ad litem shall not represent as a private attorney the legal representative or any of the parties having an interest in the case, but may continue as such guardian ad litem with reference to any revised offer of settlement so long as the legal representative has not employed independent counsel for the case. The court shall fix an appropriate fee for the guardian ad litem to be taxed as costs in the case.

(C) Attorney's Fees. In a minor's personal injury case, the judge hearing the case, upon the approval of a settlement or upon the entry of a judgment, shall determine the expenses, including attorneys' compensation, to be deducted from the settlement or judgment and shall determine the net amount distributable to the minor. Attorneys' compensation shall not be more than one-third (1/3) of the recovery if the case is disposed of in the trial court by settlement or trial. If an appeal is perfected and the case disposed of by the reviewing court, the compensation to be paid to the attorney shall not in any event exceed one-half (1/2) of the recovery.

(D) Order Approving Settlement. The order entered approving settlement shall provide for the distribution of the settlement funds and the filing of vouchers signed by recipients of any portion of the settlement proceeds within a time prescribed by the court. The receipts or vouchers shall account for the total sum approved and obtained in settlement.

(E) Vouchers. The court shall continue the case to a specific date for the purpose of having a voucher from the financial institution filed. The voucher from the depository shall acknowledge receipt of the funds and a copy of the order of the court approving settlement, and shall include the express language that: "No withdrawals shall be made from this account, unless authorized by order of court, at any time prior to {date upon which the minor will reach the age of majority}."

(F) Deposit and Investment of Funds. Any settlement funds that are to be received by a legal representative on behalf of a minor shall be required by court order to be deposited or invested for the benefit of the minor in accordance with the provisions of 755 ILCS 5/24.21. These funds shall not be withdrawn or used without approval by court order.

(G) Annuity Payments to Minor's Estate. Where annuity payments or income are payable prior to the beneficiary reaching majority age, the order approving settlement shall provide that such payments be made only to the estate of the minor; that they not be expended, transferred or withdrawn from the estate without leave of court; and the order shall require the filing of proof of payment of such periodic or partial distributions by the guardian of the minor.

RULE XI. JUDGMENTS, ORDER AND DECREES

(A) Entry of Judgments, Order and Decrees. The time of entry of any judgment is governed by Supreme Court Rule 272.

(B) Dismissal for Want of Prosecution. All cases in which no appeal is pending, and in which there has been no action of record for a period of one year, may be dismissed by the court upon notice and shall not thereafter be redocketed without good cause shown. Unless otherwise directed by the court, counsel shall be excused from personal appearance at the docket call by filing prior to the date of hearing a signed statement summarizing the out-of-court activity in the case during the preceding year, when further activity in court is likely to occur, and representation of counsel that he or she intends to prosecute the case to a final disposition.

RULE XII. CASES UNDER ADVISEMENT

In any case where the court has kept a motion or other matter under advisement more than 60 days (30 days in small claims cases) after the last brief is due, or if none is due, from the last hearing, the judge having the matter under advisement shall notify the Chief Judge. The notice must be in writing, identify the case, state the reason a decision has not been rendered, and state the date a decision may reasonably be expected. Upon inquiry by any party of record, the Chief Judge shall advise whether he has received such notice.

RULE XIII. COURT FACILITIES

(A) Committee Appointed by Chief Judge. The Chief Judge shall from time to time direct a committee of circuit judges to inspect the various courtrooms within the circuit. The committee shall report to the Chief Judge whether each courtroom meets the minimum standards for courtrooms as provided by the Illinois Supreme Court. If the facility meets such minimum standards, it shall be certified as a courtroom. If the facility does not meet such minimum standards, it shall not be certified, designated or used as a courtroom without leave of the Chief Judge and then only upon such terms and conditions as the Chief Judge may direct.

(B) Correction of Deficiencies in Court Facilities. The Chief Judge, with the concurrence of a majority of circuit judges within the circuit, may direct the county board to provide sufficient court facilities, and upon its failure to do so within a time set by the Chief Judge, the Chief Judge may direct the Presiding Judge to cause deficiencies to be corrected and/or obtain other proper facilities or furnishings and enter an order on the county board to pay such sums as required.

RULE XIV. RULES OF THE COURT, FIFTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

(A) Prior Rules Repealed. These rules are effective on the date of adoption. All prior rules of the Circuit Court of the Fifth Judicial Circuit are hereby repealed.

(B) Amendment of the Rules. Any amendment of these rules must be passed by a majority vote of all circuit judges of the Fifth Judicial Circuit, with each judge being mailed a copy of the proposed amendment at least 10 days prior to the vote.

(C) Rules Filed with Administrative Office. All rules of this court shall be filed with the Director of the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts, Springfield, Illinois, within 10 days after adoption pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 21(c).
